

Meeting Minutes for February 28, 2005

Website: <http://www.alphaepsilondelta.com>

*Important Dates:

- Today was the last day for pledge/officer interviews for last names A-H. If you haven't done your interview yet, do so ASAP by contacting one of the officers.
- Today was the last day to pick up your scrubs if you ordered a pair last semester. If you still need to pick yours up, contact LiLi (LiLi_AED@hotmail.com) ASAP, so yours isn't sold.

*Robert Kaufman (rkaufman@alphaepsilondelta.com):

- Officers will now be doing pre-health peer advising, so they're your information for all things AED, as well as everything they know about medical school, from MCATs to admission.
- Office hours will be by appointment only until further notice. So please contact an officer before you show up for an interview or advising.
- Sheriff will be sending out an email promoting a new product, Momentum energy drinks and bars. They're a fundraiser for AED, where Sheriff is going to generously donate a part of the profits to us.

*Dania Molla Hosseini (danialAED@yahoo.com):

- Survey Says questions for this time were: (1) What was your favorite childhood toy? and (2) If you were stranded on a desert island, what kind of doctor would you want to have with you?

*Rabia Ahmad (rabia@email.arizona.edu):

- Member updates went out over the weekend, so if you didn't get one or have a correction to make, let me know.
- Member of the Month for February was Van Duong. Congratulations, Van!
